

THREE BOOKS #1

...arechtheum, and
...conjecture what the Athens
...in Ancient Greece, happily
...not only in the paintings
...which perished long ago, or
...of Phidias and Scopas and
...which have been ruined by
...by barbarians to quarry
...of them, but also in a
...luminous, which though of
...ished quantity has come down
...quality which defies analysis,
...extending over a thousand
...and wonderful to-day. We
...in ruins and decay,
...these writings which
...; but the succeeding scene, distinct person real, Shakespearean in their in Odysseus always remaining?

humanity of it all, the pity, pathos? Here is beauty indeed

Helen, herself the perfection the wall of Troy the Greek host the familiar heroes, Agamemnon
But her brothers Castor and Polydeuces Homeric lines have been turned
by Edward Craven Hawtrey:—

“Clearly the rest I behold of the dead Known to me well are the faces of Two, two only remain, whom I see Castor fleet in the car—Polydeuces Own dear brethren of mine—one
Are they not here in the host, from Or, though they came with the rest
the waters,
Dare they not enter the fight or stand
All for fear of the shame and the taunt
So said she. They long since in There in their own dear land, their

...succeeding scene, distinct person real, Shakespearean in their Odysseus always remaining?
humanity of it all, the pity,
pathos? Here is beauty indeed

Helen, herself the perfection
the wall of Troy the Greek host
the familiar heroes, Agamemnon
But her brothers Castor and Pollux Homeric lines have been turned
by Edward Craven Hawtrey:—

“Clearly the rest I behold of the day
Known to me well are the faces of
Two, two only remain, whom I see Castor fleet in the car—Polydeuke
Own dear brethren of mine—one
Are they not here in the host, from
Or, though they came with the rest
the waters,
Dare they not enter the fight or stand
All for fear of the shame and the taunt
So said she. They long since in
There in their own dear land, their

...screntheum, and
...what the Athens
...in Ancient Greece, happily
...not only in the paintings
...which perished long ago, or
...of Phidias and Scopas and
...which have been ruined by
...by barbarians to quarry
...of them, but also in a
...minerals, which though of ...quantity has come down
...quality which defies analysis,
...extending over a thousand
...and wonderful to-day. We
...in ruins and decay,
...these writings which

...from the Anaxagoras and Democritus by the various dispositions of parts one with another, Apedocles he composes the Elements of the smallest bulks, those which are the most minute and may be termed the Element of Elements; Plato Assigns three Bodys, but he will not these to be Elements, nor properly so called Air, Fire and Water are mutable into one another, but the Earth is mutable into none these.

CHAP. XVIII.

Plato
Ideas matt of Be super conti

...er troubled con-
...of her this dear and tender mo-
...the most dreadful remorse is ad...tion. O Eloisa! oughtest thou ...ible sensations? thou, who wert
...ickness and of the last moments
...parent! I entreat, I conjure
...what I ought to believe? If I
...my heart in pieces: if our crimes
...of her death, we are two monsters
...istence, and it were a double
...of so fatal an union: Oh! it were ...live! But, no; I cannot believe ...could produce such baleful
...the sentiments of love are too
...be unjust? And could she, created. All the difference you as my brother, and my son; for though we you, and were even your measure consider you a to think, you have learn whatever your English p education is more valua is reason that constitutes that conducts him.

Would you know w conduct towards you? I cause my heart is not stil your situation is change sion, while there remain but since, by obstinately Eloisa, you can only ma ter your expectations wo had even rather increas