

AT METAMEDIA

Last night we celebrated ten years of work in all things archaeological run through our Metamedia Lab.

Archaeology: the discipline of things [Link] is one of our latest productions – a collaborative effort (exactly what the studio is meant to stand for) – four of us working together such that the whole book is one voice.

Here are its authors:

Chris Witmore, Bjørnar Olsen, MS, Tim Webmoor – in Metamedia, commemorating ten years of collaboration and their new book Archaeology: the discipline of things –
